Time to Talk

Feeling stressed, anxious or depressed?
We can help... and you can start to feel better

If you are at risk of harming yourself or need urgent help
Time to Talk is not a crisis service. Therefore:
• Contact your GP immediately
• Go to A&E – in an emergency, or outside of office hours
• Call The Samaritans
  24 hours a day on 116 123
• Or call Sussex Mental Health Line
  Phone 0300 5000 101
  If you live in West Sussex you can call 24/7.
  If you live in East Sussex or Brighton & Hove you can call 5pm-9am weekdays and 24 hours a day at weekends and bank holidays.

What do I do now?
If you are registered with a GP in West Sussex you can phone 01273 265967 to book an assessment, self-refer online at www.sussexcommunity.nhs.uk/ttt or speak with your GP.

Calls to 01273 265967 are answered from 9am till 5pm Monday to Friday. You can leave a message on our answerphone out-of-hours. Please leave your name and contact number and we will call you back as soon as possible.

What will happen when I call?
• We will ask you a few questions such as your name, address and contact details
• We will arrange a time for a telephone assessment, if we think we can help
• We will post or email you information and a few questions for you to think about before your assessment
• We will tell your GP you have contacted us

What will happen at the assessment?
We will discuss confidentiality, the difficulties you are having and treatment options. We will agree what happens next.

About Time to Talk
We are the talking therapies service run by Sussex Community NHS Foundation Trust. We serve the population of West Sussex.

Talking therapies can really help you with anxiety and depression.

We offer a free and confidential service to people aged 18 and over who are registered with a local GP.

Our counsellors and therapists are available at local centres and GP surgeries and telephone work is also provided.

If you are registered with a GP in West Sussex you can refer yourself directly. You don’t have to come via your GP. Read on for details.

How we do this
Guided self-help
For people with mild to moderate depression or anxiety. Based on cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT), a way of looking at how your thoughts and behaviours influence your moods using self-help materials. We provide:
• Individual sessions over the phone or face-to-face
• Booklets, recommended reading and online learning

Group courses
We provide courses and workshops to give you skills and strategies for living well.

Information
We can point you towards other organisations, services and websites. We can tell you about local wellbeing services to help you with exercise, diet and health.

Employment advice & support
We can support you to stay in work or resolve work problems. We can also support you to get back into work.

Talking therapies
For people with moderate to severe anxiety or depression.

Cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT)
Helps people with anxiety, depression and other problems. Focuses on how your thoughts and actions influence the way you feel. Offers skills and strategies to help you improve your mood. We provide:
• A ten-week group course
• Individual sessions with a therapist
• Mindfulness-based cognitive therapy (MBCT)

Counselling
Talk with someone who can listen and support. Explore and understand why life is difficult and work together to achieve change. Can help with:
• Depression
• Family and relationship difficulties
• Coping with the consequences of abuse, injury or illness
